

“ 4 Key Facts
you need to know about
St. Ann Catholic School ”

Moral/Spiritual Development

St. Ann guides their students to an enriched moral development with a faith in action approach whether big or small. This guidance will help them now and into the future by developing their personal values.

Strong Academics

St. Ann is an IB World School having a strict accreditation process to ensure a high quality education for all their students. They achieve respect for themselves and others by learning about the different cultures of the world.

Holistic Education

We help mold our students into citizens of the world with community involvement and engagement in service and leadership.

Individualized Attention

St. Ann offers a family environment that nurtures each child with small class sizes to ensure the teachers get to know the students. This engagement builds a strong community environment.
